Ignitability test for polyurethane foam in slab form according to Schedule 1 Part I of the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire) (Safety) Regulations 1988, amended 1989 and 1993, (SI 1988/No.1324, SI 1989/No.2358, SI 1993/No.207)

Sample Identification

A urethane foam identified by the client as:
Foam (ref: Sandella CMHR PUR-foam (pink))

Test result

The following test result relates only to the ignitability of the combination of upholstery composites under the particular conditions of test; it is not intended as a means of assessing the full potential fire hazard of the materials in use.

On the basis of the tests carried out as described, it is the opinion of this laboratory that this sample of foam would MEET the requirements of Schedule 1 Part I of the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire) (Safety) Regulations 1988, (amended 1989 and 1993) if the FR Polyester fabric specified in the test procedure was available.

Conditioning

More than 4 days at  $20 \pm 5^\circ\text{C}$  and  $50 \pm 20\% \text{rh}$ .

Procedure

The test, based on BS 5852: Part 2:1982, was carried out as described in Schedule 1 Part I of the Regulations using ignition source 5. A separate test assembly was used for each application. The tests were carried out using a  $220\text{g/m}^2$  flame retardant polyester fabric which deviates in part from the specification stated in Schedule 1 Part I of the Regulations. Although this fabric does not fully meet the specification laid down in the Regulations, this was regarded as having no significant effect on the test.

GENERAL CONDITIONS AND INFORMATION CONCERNING FURNITURE TESTING

1. SATRA's General Terms and Conditions apply to both test reports and certificates.
2. Tested products/materials will be kept at SATRA for a limited time and then either returned to clients (at their cost) or will be destroyed.
3. Test Certificates can be provided to supplement test reports. Please request these and quote the test report number and the product/material reference.
4. Test Certificates relate to test reports and evaluations carrying the same SATRA CQ number and no others.
5. Further information on the test methods, specifications used, test results and evaluations are given in SATRA test reports, or are available upon request.
6. Any wording used to promote products as a result of SATRA test reports and/or certificates must be submitted to SATRA for approval, giving sufficient time to allow for clearance in writing. Ask for Policy Document C5130/12.
7. Tests carried out to demonstrate the ability of the product or material to perform satisfactorily in its intended environment do not ensure that failure will not eventually occur as a result of habitual misuse or after a long period of service.
8. Flammability test results relate only to ignitability of the combination of materials under the particular conditions of tests; they are not intended as a means of assessing the full potential fire hazard of the materials in use.
9. Flammability test results can only be applied to the batch of materials submitted for test. It is recommended by many Fire Officers and Trading Standards Officers that test results and certificates are renewed every six months through re-tests. More frequent testing of batches (such as once per month or each batch) may be needed to show due diligence.
10. SATRA Furniture – Fitness for Purpose Guidelines and SATRA Test Methods may be used where appropriate. Such occasions may include instances where there is no European or International standard that is appropriate. SATRA Guidelines and Test Methods reflect the current state of knowledge and are constantly being reviewed.
11. Safety critical items such as bunk beds, mirrors, glass furniture, motion furniture, nursery furniture, beds, electrical items and upholstery may need to comply with specific regulations. Clients are advised to check for conformance before supplying products.
12. Where due diligence is required, clients should be able to demonstrate, statistically, that the required performance level is consistently present throughout each batch. Thus test data is needed and this should be based upon sampling each batch in accordance with statistical sampling such as ISO 2859-1.
13. Reports must not be altered. Reports may be re-issued by SATRA (certain conditions apply) with different references.
14. The uncertainty of the results in this report is based on a standard uncertainty multiplied by a coverage factor  $k=2$ , which provides for a confidence level of approximately 95%. In accordance with the SATRA Quality Manual, information on uncertainty will be included in test reports when it is deemed relevant to the validity or application of the test results, or when a customer requests such information, or when the uncertainty affects compliance of the item tested to a particular specification.
